

HARMONY IN HOSPITALITY

Al Watani Hospitality Co. W.L.L. celebrates Bahrain's legacy of peaceful coexistence, blending diverse cultures through exceptional hospitality.

Al Watani Hospitality Co. W.L.L. manages two distinguished establishments in Bahrain's Juffair district: Pars International Hotel and La Rosa Hotel Bahrain. Both hotels exemplify the Kingdom's rich tradition of peaceful coexistence and cultural diversity, offering guests exceptional hospitality that mirrors Bahrain's inclusive values.

A Cultural Mosaic

Pars International Hotel stands as a testament to Bahrain's commitment to embracing diversity. Its design seamlessly blends traditional Bahraini architecture

Culinary Crossroads

Dining at Pars International Hotel is a journey through myriad flavours, celebrating Bahrain's position as a crossroads of global cultures. The hotel's array of restaurants serves a harmonious blend of international and regional cuisines, each dish prepared with authenticity and care. The signature restaurant, Rogina, specializes in Lebanese cuisine, featuring live music and traditional performances that immerse guests in Middle Eastern culture.

La Rosa Hotel Bahrain complements this culinary diversity with its own exceptional dining venues. Zone 24 is an all-day dining restaurant catering to various culinary desires, from early morning breakfasts to late-night cravings. Rocky's Lounge is a vibrant hotspot known for its dynamic live band and DJ performances, as well as exciting daily theme nights. Cosmos Lounge offers a dynamic sports-themed venue with a diverse menu featuring continental favourites and Asian delicacies. Far East Seafood Restaurant serves a delectable array of fresh and flavourful seafood dishes that transport taste buds on a culinary journey to the Far East. The V Lounge Club provides a luxurious Arabian ambiance with top-notch live DJs delivering exceptional performances. Marhaba Lounge offers a unique dining experience with Arabian delights and live entertainment. Retro Lounge provides a unique blend of nostalgia, style, and entertainment, transporting patrons to a bygone era while offering a contemporary nightlife experience.

Strategic Haven

Strategically located near Bahrain's cultural landmarks and business hubs, both hotels attract a diverse clientele. Tourists exploring the nation's rich heritage and professionals attending conferences find these hotels convenient and welcoming meeting points. Their proximity to sites like the Bahrain World Trade Centre and Bahrain Financial Harbour makes them ideal choices for business travellers, while leisure guests appreciate easy access to cultural attractions.

The facilities cater to both leisure and business needs, featuring well-equipped conference rooms and recreational amenities such as rooftop swimming pools and fitness centres. This blend of services ensures that all guests, regardless of their purpose of visit, find comfort and convenience, reinforcing the hotels' roles as hubs of inclusivity.

Community Engagement

Beyond their roles in hospitality, Pars International Hotel and La Rosa Hotel Bahrain actively participate in community initiatives that celebrate Bahrain's culture and values. Engagement in events promoting cultural heritage strengthens ties with the local community, embodying the nation's spirit of unity and coexistence. The hotels collaborate with local artists and cultural groups to host exhibitions and performances, providing platforms for cultural expression and exchange.

Al Watani Hospitality's dedication to delivering on promises allows hotel owners to explore new ventures, confident that their properties contribute positively to the community. This commitment extends to environmental sustainability, with the hotels implementing eco-friendly practices to minimize their ecological footprints, aligning with global efforts toward sustainable development.

Guest Testimonials

Guests frequently commend both hotels for their family-friendly atmospheres and outstanding service. Many describe their experiences as "an oasis of comfort and care, where every detail is designed to make you feel at home." Such testimonials underscore the hotels' commitment to ensuring that every guest, regardless of background, feels valued and respected during their stay. The attentive staff, comfortable accommodations, and diverse dining options contribute to memorable experiences that resonate with the theme of peaceful coexistence.

Reflecting National Values

As Bahrain celebrates its National Day under the theme of peaceful coexistence, Pars International Hotel and La Rosa Hotel Bahrain exemplify this ideal. They serve not merely as places to stay but as reflections of the Kingdom's values, offering visitors opportunities to experience the hospitality and unity that define Bahrain's identity. The hotels' operations align with national initiatives promoting cultural understanding and tolerance, positioning them as microcosms of the broader societal harmony.

with modern aesthetics, creating an inviting atmosphere for a diverse clientele. The multicultural staff, trained to honor the traditions of every visitor, enhances the guest experience and reflects Bahrain's societal fabric, where different cultures coexist harmoniously.

Similarly, La Rosa Hotel Bahrain, a luxurious 4-star establishment, offers 105 opulent rooms designed to cater to various guest preferences. Its prime location provides easy access to premier shopping, dining, cultural, and entertainment experiences, embodying Bahrain's welcoming spirit.
